2018 CEAP-NBEC K to 12 SUMMIT ON STRENGTHENING SCHOOL LEADERSHIP

Background and Rationale

The Catholic Educational Association of the Philippines (CEAP) will hold the 2018 National Basic Education Commission (NBEC) Summit for intensive capacity-building training of school heads. This year's summit shall focus on training areas such as Supervisory Program (Instructional Leadership, Coaching Across Grade Levels) and School Improvement Planning. The first graduates of the Senior High School (SHS) Program this SY 2017-18 would be a major event in the Philippine education history and the CEAP-NBEC would like to assist the schools in (re)defining school responsibilities, focusing on roles that can improve school results.

Target Participants

Administrators, School Heads, Strand Chairs/Academic Supervisors of basic education schools and higher education institutions offering basic education programs.

The summit aims to:

- a. gather data and feedback from private schools on the concerns and challenges of their supervisory programs and school improvement planning in Basic Education;
- b. provide an opportunity for schools to share their best practices, concerns and challenges on their supervisory programs and school improvement planning;
- c. propose resolutions on the concerns and challenges gathered;
- d. produce a supervisory program and school improvement plan for their respective schools; and
- e. present these to the government and the policy makers for appropriate assistance and implementation.
